

International Training Program “Training of Trainers on Lean Manufacturing for SMEs”

26th February to 2nd March, 2018

Learn with International Resource Persons & Participants

OVERVIEW:

National Productivity Organization (NPO), Ministry of Industries & Production and Asian productivity Organization (APO), Japan announces International APO program “Training of Trainers on Lean Manufacturing for SMEs”.

This Course is designed for owners or senior/mid-level managerial, technical Personnel & professional consultants from SMEs.

OBJECTIVES:

- To equip participants with techniques and tools of lean manufacturing which can be effectively adopted by SMEs;
- To develop competent lean trainers who will be able to guide SMEs in improving their organizational performance through effective, innovative lean manufacturing methods leveraging practical approaches and supplementary smart technologies;
- To enhance the knowledge of SMEs of the next step after lean manufacturing, known as agile manufacturing

COURSE CONTENTS:

- Concepts, tools, and techniques for lean manufacturing systems;
- Methodologies and approaches to apply lean systems in SMEs;
- Integrating lean with agile manufacturing; Supplementary smart technologies that optimize work flows and production systems.

Only 06 seats are available for Pakistani Participants

Registration Deadline: January 25, 2017

Course Time: 0900 hrs to 1700 hrs

Course Venue: Islamabad

Investment Rs.20,000 /- per participant
(Inclusive of lunch, tea, course material & certificate from APO Japan)

For Registration Please Contact

1. Mr. Siraj M. Khan
Cell: 0333-5992488
Email: siraj@npo.gov.pk
2. Mr. Javed Iqbal
Cell: 0333:5104332
Email: javed@npo.gov.pk

SALIENT FEATURES:

- Resource Persons from Japan & Malaysia
- 18 International Participants from APO member countries & 06 Pakistani Participants

METHODOLOGY

- Interactive lectures
- Group discussion
- case study presentations
- Site visit and Course Assessment.